THE TRANSMISSION OF THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Assembly yesterday assumed the responsibility of telegraphing its resolutions on the state of the colony to Mr. Cardwell. There is but one opinion in the community on the subject, and that one endorses fully and unreservedly the action of the House. The public interest cannot wait for His Excellency Governor Kennedy or the official If these gentlemen are opposed to a union of the colonies based on a cheap and liberal system of Government, let them lay their reasons before Her Majesty's Government; no one attempts to throw any obstacles in their way; but to put forward their dog in the manger policy in this case as they have done in nearly every other is not only to expose themselves to unmerited ridicule, but to the condemnation of the whole community. The facts of the case are correctly put in the resolutions published elsewhere, which passed the House yesterday, in reply to His Excellency's communication.
In that communication Governor Kennedy says: "I apprehend that any resolutions of one branch of the Legislature having for their object a change in the form of Government and union of this colony and British Columbia would be valueless without the concurrence of the other branches of the Legislature, and that I should render mysel, responsible for the establishment of an irre gular and inexpedient precedent by transmitting these resolutions (passed, as I understand, in secret session) without affording the Legislative Council an opportunity of expressing an opinion upon them. I am directed by the instructions laid down for my guidance to accompany all communications entrusted to me for transmission to Her Majesty's Government by such report as their contents may appear to require. This manifestly cannot be done by telegraph. I have now submitted these resolutions to the Legislative Council, and on receiving the opinion of that hode will lose no time in transmitting them with my report thereon to ther mates ty's Secretary of State for the Colonies." Now in writing this communication His Excellency must have known that the resolutions could not, if sent in the way he prescribes, reach England before the Prorogation of Parliament, and would therefore be utterly useless. The object of the House, as His Excellency very well knew, was to lay the opinion of the representatives of the people before Mr. Cardwell at a time when that opinion might influence the action of the Imperial authorities on the union question, to these colonies' benefit. The telegraph was the only medium by which this could be done, but that was the very medium which His Excellency declared should not be employed. He could not send his own remarks by telegraph. Why not, we should like to know, if it was requisite to send his remarks at all? Is the electric or magnetic means of communication too undignified for so important a personage as the Governor of Vancouver Island? Or is his Excellency struggling with the nightmare which took hold of Mr. Fraser, and made him shudder at the idea of "foreigners and others knowing our affairs," by the transmission of resolutions that had been already published! We can imagine with what anxiety the telegraphic operators in the United States would listen to the State secrets of Vancouver Island-how they would strain their ears to eatch the words of Governor Kennedy in compliment of the people and their representatives. The misfortune would be, however, that nine out of ten of the operators would ask who is Governor Kennedy, and where is Vancouver Island. We cannot help thinking that both the Governor and Council have made themselves in this matter supremely ridiculous. The Governor, because he has shown a nervous anxiety to place the resolutions before his own officials, and the most laughable timidity about sending messages by telegraph, and the Council, because they will be sitting today discussing resolutions that are now in New York. Mr. W. A. G. Young and his colleagues will have to content themselves with a little harmless thunder aimed at the Lower House, unless, indeed, they essay the task of proving to the Home Government that they and not the Assembly represent the people of Vancouver Island. This is idea entertained by the Colonial Secretary, and we have no doubt so astute a statesman must be correct. We are rather of opinion, however, that Mr. Cardwell will think a little differently, and that whether the telegram be informal in itself or sent in an informal way, the unanimous opinion and prayer of the members of the Assembly of Vancouver Island will not, in the present critical state of affairs, be transmitted to Her Majesty's Government in vain.

DEATH OF GENERAL SCOTT .- The Overland Telegraph announces the death of one of the most notable men in American history Winfield Scott was born in 1786, before ou Constitution was framed, and he lived until after its permanence had been secured by the overthrow of the great political heresy of rate effort on the part of the bulls, specie overthrow of the great political heresy of secession, which had threatened its existence for nearly half a century. He was a Captain in the regular army at the beginning of the war of 1812, and a Major-General soon after its close. He was the chief military plant of the contest, having shown eminent courage, judgment, quick perception and tact. It was not, however, until 1814 the became the head of the army, a position which he then held for twenty years. In 1847 he led the American army to the Captal of Mexico, in a campaign that deserves reacting lea the American army to the Captial of Mexico, in a campaign that deserves to rank among the greatest military achievements on record. With only 12,000 men be conquered a country that had 60,000 soldiers in arms, and with 4,000 he marched into its chief city, where 32,000 Mexicans had been entrenched. His civil government was not less successful than his campaign in war, and many of the principal Mexicans expressed their regret at his departure. In 1842 he was instrumental in preserving peace with Great Britian, when there was an acrimonious dispute about the Maine boundary line, and in 1859 he again was neceworker, in the matter of San Juan; in that year he visited our city as a commissioner, and was received by the people of San Francisco with many demonstrations of profound respect. In 1860 he urged Buchanau to garrison and strengthen the southern forts, and after the administration of Lincoln came into power, he threw all his influence and enterly in fayor of it and the standard of the same from Livergool June 9th, via Queenstown 10th, has arinfluence and came into power, he threw all his influence and enterly in fayor of it and the province of the franchise classing reform, but were defeated. tal of Mexico, in a campaign that deserves of Lincoln came into power, he administration of Lincoln came into power, he threw all his influence and energy in favor of it and the preservation of the Union, to the cause of which he remained faithful throughout. THE VOLUNTEER MOVEMENT IN NEW WEST-MINSTER-The new volunteer corps, called the "Home Guards," formed at New Westminster, has been sworn in, received their arms from the Government, and mustered for drill. The officers are Alexander Calder, Captain: Thomas McMicking, 1st Lieutenant; John Robson, 2d Lieutenant; James G MeBean, Ensign. The effective force was about 60 members. The "Seymour Artillery Company," under Captain Holmes, R.A., mustered 40 efficient members; they had also received their arms and marched through the city in excellent style. The roll of the Rifle Volunteers had been strengthened by the addition of fresh members and their effective. dition of fresh members, and their effective force is now 80 members. Drilling was

The continental news continues warlike. Bismarck had issued an important circular, dated the 4th, and addressed to the Prussian representatives abroad, which says:—Ali our information agrees that a determination to make war is settled at Vienna. Not only was there manifested an utter absence of all readiness to enter into confidential negotiations to discuss the possibilities of an agreement; but expressions of influential Austrian statesmen and counsellors of the Emperor statesmen and counsellors of the Emperor statesmen and counsellors of the Emperor have been reported to the King [of Prussia] from an authentic source, which leaves no doubt that the Imperial Ministry desire war at any price, partly in the hope of successes in the field, and partly to heal domestic difficulties - nay, even Austrian finances, by popular contributions or by honorable bankruptcy. The fact of war is settled by this determination at Vienna, and the only further point is to choose a favorable time to

The London Times says such a dispatch as the above has not often been penned by a European minister. The Prussian statesman now thicks courtesy unnecessary in communications with Austria. All the pride and bitter hostility which have been necessarily represend during the large predictions with bitter hostility which have been necessarily repressed during the long negotiations may now be repealed. The dispatch breathes the spirit of war, and seems to have been written in anticipation of immediate rupture.

The London Telegraph says with this dispatch the last hope of peace disappeared. Hostilities became evident. The Prussian division under General Fliess had crossed the Eider into Holstein. They are said to be ordered to occupy Rendsburg, Kiel, and Fredericksladt. The Austrians were reported evacuating Kiel and concentrating at Altona, where General Goblentz and staff had established headquarters. On the 8th the tablished headquarters. CANYON CREEK. CANYON CHEEK.

QUESNEL, June 19.—Still great excitement about the new gold fields of Canyon Creek. Everybody is preparing for a start. The farms in this vicinity are being fast deserted, farm labor being at a discount. Scarcely any person is content to work for wages. The steamer Enterprise arrived from Soda Creek last evening with a number of passengers, among whom were some of the Canyon Creek prospecting party on their reture. The Creek prospecting party on their return. The boat was deserted by her crew, and no others to be hired. A party start to-morrow for the new El Dorado. Weather very fine; river again on the rise, FROM OKANAGAN.

FROM THE BIG BEND MINES. (From the Tribune).

News has been received at Seymour that coarse gold has been struck in paying quan-tities in several claims on French Creek, and that quite an excitement has sprung up in consequence. The gold has been found at a depth of seven and eight feet from the surface. Several parties have come over to Seymour from the mines and purchased provisions, paying for them in gold dust. The merchants and people of Seymour were in good spirits over the news.

The latest dates from these mines are to the 8th instant. On French Creek, Monroe and Bella companies have taken out gold; the former with four men have ranged from nine to thirteen ounces per day; this claim is quite shallow, from two to five feet. Discovery claim, working in the bank, have also taken out gold, making one day eight ounces and three dollars. About forty claims are located, and will get fairly at work in ten days. The Half-breed company are preparing to flume French Creek, and the company adjoining have nearly finished the company adjoining have nearly finished their wing dam. About five hundred men their wing dam. About five hundred men remain on the river and four bundred at Seymour waiting for the water to subside.

IMPORTANCE OF HAVING DAVIS'

Wonderful cure of the Rev. D. L. Brayton Missionary in India, who was stung by Scorpion.

Extract from his letter published in the Baptist Missionary Magazine.

For the first time since I have been it India, I have been stung by a Scorpion. went out this morning to my exercise as usual, at early dawn, and having occasion to use an old box, on taking off the cover I put my hand on a Scorpion, which immediately reseated the insult by thrusting its sting into the palm of my hand.—
The instantaneous and severe pain which dated through the average in out incredible. darted through the system is quite incredible; what an awfully virulent poison their sting must contain! I FLEW TO MY BOTLE OF DAYIS'S PAIN KILLER, and found it to be true to its name; after a moment's relief, saturated a small piece of sponge, bound it on my hand, and went about my exercises, feeling no more particular inconvenience.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS, a certain HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS, a certain remody for diseases of the skim-Riingworm, scurvy, sorofula, or king's evil, sore heads, and the most inveterate skin diseases to which the human race is subject, cannot be treated with a more safe and speedy remedy than Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which act so peculiarly on the constitution, and so purify the blood that those diseases are eradicated from the system, and a lasting cure is obtained. They are equally efficacious in the cure of tumours, burns, scalds, glandular swellings, ulcerous wounds, rheumatism, contracted and stiffjoints. These medicines operate mildly and surely. The cure effected by them is not temporary or apparent only, but complete and permanent.

REGISTERED LETTERS. King, Mrs Kerr, John (late of Maple Bay)
HENRY WOOTTON,

AN ARTICLE FOR THE SEASON. INTERESTING TO EVERYBODY.

This is the season of poetry. Sentiment thaws out with the snow, and expands with the early flowers. The press grows eloquent on the tender grass, the unfolding buds, and other vernal vegetables. But, with all this elevation of the spirit, there are many afflictions of the flesh. Appetite, over-stimulated by the stringent cold of the winter, subjects the weak stomach to dyspepsia, and the liver to an over-flow of bile. The blood is over-rich, and among the consequences are liver to an overflow of bile. The blood is over-rich, and among the consequences are boils, eruptions, an other external disorders. Ill health is a sad drawback to our enjoyment of the glories of nature, and therefore it is as well, in advance of the fervid heats of summer, to purify the fluids of the body, give tone and energy to the digestive powers and remove from the superficial vessels those acrid humours which sometimes produce a species of effioresence, much less agreeable than that of the orchard or the parterre.

parterre. Under these circumstances, we cannot Under these circumstances, we cannot better serve the dyspeptic or plethoric reader, or, in fact, any reader who is out of health or has had a premonitory warning of coming sickness, than by advising him (or her) to have recourse to Holloway's famous remedies. Whatever may be the source of the difficulty, in whatever portion of the system the seed of disease may be entrenched, HOLLOWAY'S PILLS will assuredly reach the locality, and extinguish the disorder in its elementary stage. They are peremptory their own interests.

5. The House deeming these Resolutions to be of the utmost importance at the present moment, from the fact that the question of moment, from the consideration of Her is not in properties. This may be a successfully resist. This may seem a sweeping assertion, but there is mass of authentic testimony to fall back mass of authentic testimony to fall back upon, which will fully sustain it. It is a familiar aphorism that "what everybody says must be true," and it is beyond controversy that the majority of christendom use and praise Holloway's remedies. War demands his Cintment for its mutilated victims, mands his Othern tor its mutiated victims, and Peace requires it for her chapter of accidents. He who keeps by him both his Pills and Ointment, as standard household curatives, may say with Cato, though in a different sense—

"Thus am I doubly armed!"

We belong in heavy five graved conjust.

"Thus am I doubly armed!"
We believe in being fore-armed against disease and casualties, as far as possible. Some years ago a man was bitten by a cobra di capella in the Surrey Zoological Gardens, in London. A preparation had been provided which was said to be a certain antidote to the said of this capront, but it was the said of this capront, but it was to the poisin of this serpent; but it was not at hand, and the poor fellow was dead before the remedy could be found. We mention this fact to illustrate the necessity of having Holloway's Pills and Ointment always within reach. That they are specifies for nine-tenths of the diseases of the human race seems to be a fact established by conclusive proofs; and if so, the propriety of keeping them where they may be always made avail-able on the instant, must be obvious to the head of every family.—Cincinnati Sun. ju19

THE TEETH.—A very comprehensive little treatise on the teeth has just been forwarded to up the well-known dentists Messrs. GABRIEL Adopting the lan uage of the preface we may say the comprehensive the second of the preface we may say the second of the se by the Well-known dentists alesses. Walmills, Adopting the lan sunge of the preface we may say that in this comewhat pretensious age, at a time when publications of this kind are numerous, a short, unassuming treatise emanating from a tirm of long standing containing nothing but that which is immediately to the purpose, will not, we believe, prove unacceptable. The little work contains many valuable hints which will be found eminently useful for the allevation of the miseries of toothache, until the more substantial aid of the professed dentist can be procured. GABRIEL ON THE LOSS AND RESTORATION OF THE TEETH.—The above is issued by Messrs. GABRIEL, the emineat London dentists, and as it is written by men who have a high standing in their profestion, the work is well worthy the perusal of all who value the preservation of their teeth and wish to guard against the many and tormenting evils to which those useful members are subject. Many valuable hints are given throughout the book as to the various means of preserving the teeth and gums in a healthy condition, and of arresting in many cases permanently the progress of decay which may have already set in. The little work is evidently written by men of long experience in their profession, and who are thorough masters of their sublect, and as such may be honestly recommended. What is more learful than a breaking down of the nervous system? To be excitable or nervous in a small degree is most distressing, for where can a remedy be found? Here is one: Drink but little wine, beer, or spirits, or tar better, abstain from them altogether; do not take coffee—weak tea is proferable; get all the fresh air you can; take three or four of the fills every night; ear plenty of solids, and avoid the use of slops. If these golden rules are followed, you will be happy in mind, strong in body, and forgetyou have any nerves. Cash advanced on Merchandise, to any nount, consigned for sale. HOLLOWAT'S PILLS AND OINTMENT—Stomach and Kidneys. Between these two organs there exists a close and intimate relation which is demonstrated by the wasting which occurs in all diseases afflicting the kidneys. The disordered stomach is often the first index of renal irregularity. Holloway's remedies used at that juncture would cut short many a serious and fatal attack. They act with wonderful efficacy on every organ of secretion, but especially do they regulate the stomach, liver and kidneys, in restoring their healthy functions, and casting our any obstructions or impurities. It is necessary for the ointment to be well rubbed into the small of the back twice daily, when it is absorbed and greatly augments the purifying and salutary influence of the Pills.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT .- Wounds, Scalds HOLLOWAY'S OLHTMENT.—Wounds, Scalds, Burns, and Irritating Sores.—The peculialry mild, soothing, anti-inflammatory power exerted by this Ointment strongly recommends its use to all persons who have charge of children. Accidents will occur in the nursery in spite of the greatest caution and utmost vigilance. The scratch, the burn, or the scald, treated early with this Ointment, assumes no angry aspect, and never long tortues the little sufferer, whose very cry excites each bystander's compassion and pieces the parents heart. Every nurse should consider this invaluable Ointment an essential to a well appointed nursery. The Ointment is applicable to any ore, whatever its character. It conducts to health as sure as the compass points to the north. Of solid Reading Matter, comprising the latest

HOLLOWAT'S CONTENENT AND FILLS—Palpitation, Shortness of Breath, Dropsy.—This last named disease is often preceded by irregular action of the heart, and difficult respiration which symptoms are always severe, and ever go from bad to worse, unless proper means of cure be resorted to. In Holloway's unrivailed Ointment and Fills' the dropsical patient will ever find succour; the present relief derived from th. use of these remedies is marvellously quick, and perseverance in the steady application of this not be Ointment invariably results in a lasting and satisfactory cure. The two medicines act with such energy on the circulation and absorbent system that the dropsical fluid vanishes, and the sufferer finds all the oppressive symptoms daily decline, till natural health returns. HOLLOWAY' OINTMENT AND PILLS .- Fist

HOLLOWAY' OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Pistu las, Piles, Excoriations, and Strictures, are speedily relieved and ultimately removed by applying this Ointment after fomentation with warm water. Persons suffering from these scourges of the human frame should arrest their progress at once, for it is both insidious and rapid. Fistulas, if long allowed to go on unchecked, not only weaken the nervous system, but destroy life. The sooner these inestimable remedies are used the more certain is success; yet none should despair, hopeless cases have often yielded, and the sufferer has been saved a painful death. In excortations, a few applications of this healing Ointment effect a cure, while the Pills, conjointly used, are especially beneficial in relaxing and removing strictures, whatever their situation or duration.

olloway's Ointment and Pills.—The y medical chest that is furnished with these rful remedies needs nothing more. Indiges general dibility, liver complaint, eruptions, wounds, ulcers, tumours, &c., are infalured by their use. They purify the blood and g e tone and vigour to the whole system. The Unitment, when well rubbed into the parts affected, enters the flesh just as sait enters meat, and if the Pills be taken as an auxiliar; tue cure is speedy, thorough, and permanent. These medicaments are composed of rare balsams, without the admixture of a grain of mercury or any injurious substance. They are peculiarly mild and gentle in their action, and are as safe as they are efficacious.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.-Influ Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Infuence and chest, so prevalent in this country, nothing so speedily relieves or so certainly cures as these inestimable remedies. These disorders are too often neglected at the commencement; or are injudiciously treated, resulting in either case, in disastrous consequences. Whatever the condition of the patient, Holloway's medicines will restore, if recovery be possible; they will retard the alarming symptoms till the blood is purified and Nature consummates the cure, gradually restoring attempth and vital nervous power. By persevering in the use of Holloway's preparations, tone is conferred on the stomach and frame generally; the fluids are regenerated, morbific matter is expelled, and a happy revolution occurs throughout the system.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS—These potent remedies constitute a materia medica in themselves, for there is no i ternal or external disorder cont.oilable by met, tine for which the one or the other of them is not a positive remedy—eruptions, tumers, serofula, scurry, cancer, asthma, rheumatism, gout, and dropsy entirely subside and disappear under the action of these joint medicines; and in cases of indigestion, sick headache, bile, liver complaints, debility, and other disorders originating in the internal organs, the Pills produce the most astouishing results implicated. The student of Nature knows how simple are her ways; if one preparation can throw out all the impurities of the blood, disease is conquered and art is triumphant, because it adopted the simplicity of Nature. HOLLOWAY'S CONTINUES AND PILLS-These HOLLOWAY'S CINTMENT AND PILLS-Acute Holloway's Ointment and Pills—Acute Rheumatism. In all severe pains in the joints and muscles, after due fomentation with hot water, the soothing action of this Ointment is most remarkable; it seems at once to lessen inflammation, ease pain, reduce the swelling, restore the free circulation; and expel the disease. In these complaints, indeed, Holloway's Ointment and Pills are an infallible specific. The Ointment should be rubbed as near the part in pain as the patient can bear; it is absorbed and directly conveyed to the diseased textures, when, acting on nerves wessels, and guiders, it will arrest disease and parifying qualities of the Pills have the happies, effect in assisting the Ointment.

Holloways Pills.—General debility, low spirits, and nervous irritation, are the consequences of dyspepsia or indigestion. The Pills soon give totte to the stomach, removate the digestive powers, purify the blood, and give strength to the whole system. Sluggishness of the body and depression of the mind are succeeded by a cheerful activity of the physical and mestal functions. Indigestion is the parent of so many evils, and is so common, so universal a complaint, the it is a great blessing that such a remedy as this invaluable medicine should have been discovered. No one need long suffer from indigestion with these Pills ay name.
